

More Than 10,000 At South Mountain Fair On Saturday; Horse Show Is Feature Event

Despite rain during the morning, the South Mountain Fair attracted more than 10,000 persons Saturday to conclude what officials agreed was a "very successful" 1953 fair.

Feature event Saturday was the horse show, which began Saturday morning in a downpour and finished during the afternoon in bright sunshine.

While Gettysburg and southern parts of the county were subject to rainfall, Saturday evening, the rains avoided the fairgrounds after "wetting down" the area during the morning.

Highpoint in the horse show was the skyscraper jump with "High Topper" ridden by Robert Showers, Hampstead, Md., clearing the bar at 5 feet, eight inches, a new record for the South Mountain Fair Show.

Girl Places Second

Peggy Long, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Long, Gettysburg R. 3, gave Showers competition all along the way but her mount, "St. Nicholas," just could not clear those last few inches that raised the bar to 5 feet, eight inches. Miss Long placed second. "Buckles" ridden by Kenneth Lawrence, Hampstead, was third and "Gray Fox," ridden by Charles Donovan, New Cumberland, took fourth honors.

In the Adams County Pleasure Horse class "Captain Koot" owned by Jane C. Donley, Harrisburg Rd., won first place; "Speck" owned by Barton Poth, Lincoln Square, was second; "Playmore's Fancy Boy" owned by Constance Schroll, Fairfield, won third place and "Golden Lady," owned by Wilson Clapsaddle, Gettysburg R. D., was fourth.

L. S. Long's "St. Nicholas," besides taking second place in the Skyscraper jump, also won first in the open jumper class "Gray Fox," owned by Charles Donovan, was second and "Zombie," owned by Thomas Bross Jr., East Berlin R. 2, was third.

SHEELY BEGINS CAMPAIGN FOR SUPERIOR COURT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democrats today injected the Republican-passed sales tax into their campaign to elect two judges to the State Superior Court in the Nov. 3 general election.

Maurice Splain Jr., Democratic state chairman, sounded the keynote for the judicial contest that likely will be a prelude to his party's "repeal-the-sales-tax" battle cry in the gubernatorial campaign next year.

"We expect a lot of support from rank and file Republican voters who want to express disapproval of the general sales tax and the failure of the Republican leadership to carry out campaign pledges," Splain said.

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, indicated on the other side that the one per cent sales tax, enacted by the GOP-dominated 1953 Legislature, will be soft-pedaled as a political issue.

Tax For Education

"The sales tax was enacted to finance education of the children of Pennsylvania—not only Republican children but Democratic children, too," he commented.

Taylor will make a statewide radio broadcast tomorrow night to outline his party's position on the sales tax and other phases of the record of Republican state administrations.

Republican candidates for the State Superior Court seats started their campaign last week.

Judge J. Calvin Wright, Bedford, elevated to the appellate bench last year and now seeking a full 10-year term, and Judge Harold L. Ervin of Delaware County, traveled together for campaign talks to GOP groups in Allentown, Milford and Williamsport.

Judge W. C. Sheely of Adams County, a Democratic candidate, opens his campaign today in Wellsboro. His running-mate, Judge John Ingham Hook of Greene County, starts stumping the state Oct. 1.

She formerly did kindergarten work as a missionary in Japan.

A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Marian Fischer Hammer, Gettysburg, now on furlough as a missionary to Argentina for the Lutheran Church. Next Saturday Miss Snyder will attend a similar workshop at the state teachers' college at California, Pa.

In New Jersey, he changed his mind, he told police, and started to return to Oklahoma. While passing through this area he was taken ill and found by passing motorists.

320 Allied Prisoners Who Favor Reds Sent To Kaesong

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Some of the 320 Allied prisoners who refused to return to their homelands from Red captivity have arrived at Kaesong, Communist Korea. Correspondent Wilfred Burchett said today.

They are expected to be handed over to Indian custody in the Korean neutral zone Sunday.

Burchett, the Paris L'Humanite newsman who often speaks unofficially for the Red command, did not say how many men are at Kaesong nor did he give their nationality.

About 20 of the 320 are non-Koreans and probably most of the 20 are Americans.

Meanwhile, Indian troops guarding anti-Red Chinese and North Koreans squelched angry but small outbursts among the 1,800 Chinese being handed over Monday.

The POWs hurled rocks and insults at Communist observers watching outside, but the crack Indian soldiers moved into the stockades and quieted the shouting, fist-swinging captives.

Monday's shipment brought the total of POWs already in the demilitarized zone to almost 5,000 Chinese and 1,000 North Koreans. In all, about 14,700 Chinese and 8,000 North Koreans will be held under Indian guardianship to hear explanations why they should return home and wait while the political conference tries to work out their fate.

If the problem isn't settled by about Jan. 25, 1954, those remaining will be freed as civilians.

The first 250 Chinese being brought to the demilitarized zone Monday morning balked at being separated from 250 others who accompanied them.

However, the Indian camp commander, Maj. Gen. S. P. P. Thorat, gave them 15 minutes to move in. The prisoners entered the compound quickly.

LOCAL FIREMEN WIN $125 PRIZE AT DILLSBURG

Gettysburg's Fire Department won $125 in the 26th annual Cumberland County Firemen's Convention parade at Dillsburg Saturday to boost the total won by the company in parade competition this summer to $1,550. The amount compares to approximately $1,300 won last year in similar events.

Saturday's event was the final procession of the year for the local firemen who ended the parade in a "dead heat" with Hanover for the top honors.

Local firemen said the judges decided, because Gettysburg had 27 men in line while Hanover had only 26, to give the local firemen the $125 for largest unit and Hanover the $125 for best appearing. In addition to the Blue and Gray Band and the firemen's marching unit, the local company also had its rescue truck and the Mack pumper in the line of march.

Other Winners

Second place for best appearing, a $75 prize, went to the Citizens' Fire Company of Mechanicsburg and second place for largest number in line, also $75, went to the Vigilant Hose Co. of Shippensburg.

TO OPEN SPOTTER POST TUESDAY; NEED 300 MORE

A special plea for volunteers for the Gettysburg Spotter Post was made today by James Strickhouser, chief observer for the Gettysburg observation station which will be opened with a formal ceremony Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Strickhouser said the public is invited to attend the opening, to be held at the spotter station on the north side of the Gettysburg-Bonneauville Rd., on Bonneauville hill, just east of town.

Members of the Air Force will be present at the dedicatory program to outline the work of the spotter station officials.

The Gettysburg High School band will play at 7:15 o'clock preceding the program and then will present several numbers during the program itself. William G. Weaver, county Civil Defense Director, will speak as will officials from the Baltimore Filter Center. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh will give the invocation and Mr. Strickhouser will serve as master of ceremonies. In event of rain the program will be held at the Court House.

The first two spotters to go on duty, at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, will be John Berger and C. W. Epley Jr.

Need 300 More

So far "slightly over 100" of the needed 398 volunteers have signed for spotter duty, Strickhouser said. In a letter sent to all local organizations in an attempt to secure additional volunteer spotters Strickhouser said:

"You are needed to help protect your country. You can help by joining the Ground Observation Corps. This corps is made up of many thousands of patriotic Americans like yourself who devote part of their spare time observing and reporting aircraft from observation posts or serving U. S. Air Force Filter Centers.

"The Ground Observer Corps is a vital part of our Air Defense System. Our radar can detect high-flying aircraft but YOU are needed to spot and report the low-flying ones which can come in under our radar network.

"You could be the one person responsible for saving thousands of American lives in case of an enemy attack on our country.

"Help protect your family and fellow countrymen."

PAPER OCCUPIES NEW BUILDING

WAYNESBORO, Pa. (AP) — The Waynesboro Record Herald started moving today into a new one and one-half story modern newspaper building.

The building, of cement block construction with stucco finish, required eight months to erect. It will house the business and editorial departments of the newspaper as well as its job shop and photograph studio.

The last press run was made today at the old building. Then workmen started dismantling the press to move it into the new building. It was necessary to tear out a side of the old building to move the press, and other heavy printing equipment.

Times Lends Hand

Floyd Chalfant, president of the Record Herald Publishing Co., arranged with the Gettysburg Times to print editions of the newspaper for several days this week until the press is set up in the new building.

Chalfant, who was state secretary of commerce in the administration of former Gov. Edward Martin, 1943-46, acquired the Record Herald in 1925. He has been planning the new building for a number of years.

OPEN FRESHMAN WEEK TODAY AT COLLEGE; 400 NEW STUDENTS

Gettysburg College's 27th annual Orientation Week, an indoctrination program for freshmen and other new students, opened this morning on the college campus.

More than 400 new students are taking part in the program, held in connection with the 122nd opening of the college on Thursday.

Orientation Week is a regular part of the student's first year in college. Its purpose is to help the student get a good start and to discuss with him the opportunities and responsibilities of college life.

In his keynote address this afternoon, Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president, called upon the new students to "recognize the dignity and personal importance of the individual as a being who was created in the image of God." Dr. Langsam noted that the proper individual growth and development—"spiritual, intellectual, and physical"—in harmony with the needs of present-day society was the chief concern of the college.

President's Address

Dr. Langsam's address to the new students follows: "Today marks the official beginning of an important partnership—a partnership between you as student and Gettysburg College as alma mater. It is our fond expectation that this partnership will last for life, since we shall continue to be interested in you as alumni long after you have completed the academic requirements for a degree; and since we hope that your own interest in and affection for Gettysburg will remain with you as long as life itself.

"You will find, as time goes by, that this personal interest in you is one of the distinctive features of Gettysburg. As a relatively small college, we are in better position than the mammoth institution to recognize the dignity and personal importance of the individual as a (Continued on Page 2)

MERCURY DROPS TO 42 DEGREES

Only 10 days after the five-day stretch of 100-degree weather here, the official temperature dropped to a low of 42 degrees this morning. The coolest morning so far this season, it came only a week ahead of the first day of fall. The 10-above freezing reading followed a day in which the mercury never got above the 64-degree mark.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A large mass of clear, cool air from the Midwest has caused temperatures throughout Pennsylvania to drop 10 to 15 degrees below the September normal, the weatherman reported today.

The official cold spot in the Keystone State, based on reported overnight temperatures, was the sub-freezing 30-degree reading at Brookville.

It was 49 at Philadelphia, where the normal for Sept. 14 is usually around 60. Pittsburgh had 41, Williamsport 40, Philadelphia 37, Harrisburg 46, Allentown 45, Scranton 43 and Altoona 39.

The weatherman said the cool mass will "gradually disappear this afternoon" and by evening there will be increasing cloudiness with the possibility of rain tomorrow.

Temperatures tonight will range in the low 50's, and it will gradually warm up—with the mercury climbing into the 70's—by Wednesday.

WIFE SLAIN BY JEALOUS HUBBY

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—A 19-year-old woman was shot to death today by her jealous husband, police reported.

The victim was Mrs. Dolores Henczenski, mother of an 8-month-old daughter.

Her husband, John, 20, who fled the shooting scene in their apartment, but was recaptured less than an hour later, was booked on a charge of murder.

The husband pumped six bullets into his young wife, whom he believed was seeing another man, police said.

Police found Henczenski at his father's home having coffee, and he surrendered without a struggle. Neighbors in the four-story apartment said the couple argued frequently.

The slain woman lived in Morrisdale, Pa., before she was married, and her maiden name was McLaughlin, police said.

being who was created in the image of God. Your proper individual growth and development—spiritual, intellectual, and physical—in harmony with the needs of modern society, is our chief concern.

"In considering what to say to you today, there came to mind a recent conversation with a distinguished alumnus. He spoke of his love for Gettysburg and of all that it has meant to him. And then he said, 'You know, Doctor, if I could start all over again, I would get even more out of college; for I know now that I should, and easily could, have done certain things more intensively.' And then he listed these things which he wished he had done while still in college:

9 Recommendations

"More reading aside from the required assignments; come to know more professors more intimately; achieved a better balance of study and extracurricular activities; chosen more cultural electives and taken more advantage of the cultural opportunities offered by the college and the community; made more use of the college's counseling facilities; taken a more active part in the life of the Gettysburg community; recognized more clearly the value of factual information; written home more often and then not only when I needed money; set aside more time for personal communion with God.

"These, then, are the things which I hope you will bear in mind and practice, along with your regular activities, as you advance through your college career. And remember, please, that Gettysburg College cannot 'educate' you; it can only provide the right environment to promote your well-rounded development as you strive to educate yourself. Someone once wisely said: 'If a person has no education, he just has to use his brains.' We hope you will use your brains in the Gettysburg environment to become well-educated men and women, and Christian leaders in tomorrow's America."

GOP HEAD RAPS DEMS DIGEST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee said yesterday the Democrats, by circulating abroad their new magazine, are "deliberately encouraging distrust of ourselves and our ideals."

Hall made the comments in an open letter to Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee last year. He said the Democratic Digest, whose stated purpose is to poke fun at the GOP, is on sale in Canada and Paris.

Hall said the digest is deliberately designed to undermine confidence in the Eisenhower administration, and he asked Stevenson: "Do you think . . . the Democratic National Committee and the Democrat party are serving the cause of Americans by peddling undermining attacks on the President through European and Canadian distribution of the publication?"

There was no immediate comment from Stevenson, but Digest editor Clayton Fritchie said in Chicago: "We are trying to print the facts of political life and if anybody is losing confidence in the administration it is because of the administration's failures. It isn't what we say—it is what they do."

Visit To Cambodia Not Fruitful To U. S.

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) and U. S. Ambassador Donald Heath returned here today after a brief trip to the kingdom of Cambodia, where they apparently failed to get Premier Pen Nouth to change his neutralist stand on communism.

The two refused to comment, but Heath let it be known he wasn't very optimistic about bringing Cambodia into line even under the threat of losing American aid money. Knowland was expected to comment on the trip at a news conference tomorrow before leaving for Bangkok.

Pen Nouth has declared that his government would not fight the Reds in neighboring Viet Nam if the rebel Vietminh would get out of Cambodia.

The Premier made his offer to the Vietminh in a broadcast last week.

5 CATHOLICS ON TRIAL IN POLAND

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The Roman Catholic bishop of Kielce, Czeslaw Kaczmarek, three other Roman Catholic churchmen and a nun were scheduled to be tried today by the Warsaw Regional Military Court on charges of spying for "American imperialists" and the Vatican.

An official announcement said the bishop was accused of organizing an espionage and diversionist center in Kielce Province, Central Poland, of directing anti-state activities, of sabotaging economic plans of the Communist government, conspiring to bring capitalism back to Poland and carrying on black market activities.

Other Charges

He also was accused of cooperating with the German occupation forces during World War II.

Standing trial with him were the Rev. Jan Danilewicz, former treasurer of the Kielce Curia; the Rev. Jozef Dabrowski, the bishop's former chaplain; the Rev. Kwladyslaw Widlak, a former official of the Kielce Seminary, and Sister Waleria Niklewaska.

The bishop was reported in trouble with the Polish government as early as January, 1951, when it was announced that the Kielce district attorney had ordered "essential security measures" against him. It was thought at the time that he had been put under house arrest.

The bishop has been under frequent attack by the press for the past five years as an alleged German collaborator and a "reactionary."

SOKOLS TOLD

Declaration of Independence in October, 1918.

"And what inspiration will we, will you, Sokols, take with you into your hearts from this pilgrimage? Will we follow the advice of Abraham Lincoln, laid down in his Gettysburg Address?"

"It is for us the living rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced."

"Make Contribution"

"You as exemplary American citizens are certainly making your contribution to this great task by your Sokol activities."

"But you, my dear friends, are also Czechs and Slovaks. In the country of your forebears the motto of Abraham Lincoln does not apply. Although they call their democracy a people's democracy, their government is not of the people, by the people, for the people—but of dictators, by dictators and for dictators. You must resolve to do everything in your power that the Czechoslovak nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom."

"FOG"
There's a mist around the city
... giant cloak of velvet fog
... thick and ever tightly clinging ... like a heavy dialogue ... veil of smoke and cooling dampness ... that I cannot seem to hold ...
but it's closely flung around me
... silky web-like manifold
... fog, you cover up each building ... and you spray each field and stream ... with the wonder of your magic
... you make people drift and dream ... topic of a world of mystery ... you enhance the poet's pen ... but you linger only moments ...
then you disappear again ...
... like all the other people
... I will welcome you anew
... for you paint the world with wonder ... till you fade away from view.

YORK FAIR TO OPEN TUESDAY; $50,000 PRIZES

More than $50,000 in prizes and awards will be given to winners among over 15,000 competitors at this year's non-profit York Interstate Fair, dating back to 1765, which opens Tuesday and continues through Saturday, Sept. 19.

That was announced today by Samuel S. Lewis, president of the fair for 23 years and Pennsylvania's Secretary of Forests and Waters. He said more than 300,000 persons from six nearby States and the District of Columbia are expected to visit the 120-acre fairgrounds this year.

There are a number of entries of farm animals, farm produce, fowl, handicraft, art work, jellies, cakes, pies, needlework, sewing and other classifications of Fair competitions.

On the entertainment bill are 10 stage programs to be presented on a $200,000, steel-covered stage in concrete-and-steel grandstand and annex. Special attractions this year will include personal appearances by Mickey Rooney, Carmen Miranda, Vaughn Monroe, Ray McKinley's Orchestra, Recording Artists Les Paul and Mary Ford, and other well known entertainers, plus midget and stock car auto races, harness and running races, an automobile "thrill show," a big musical comedy revue having a 24-girl chorus line, and TV and radio personalities.

Perko's Philadelphia Mummer's String Band will appear Tuesday, Vaughn Monroe and Ray McKinley's Orchestra, Wednesday; Les Paul and Mary Ford, Thursday; Carmen Miranda and Mickey Rooney, Friday. Midget and stock-car auto races will be held Saturday afternoon. Running races will be held every afternoon. Harness races will be held every afternoon, except Saturday. Vaudeville headliners will appear every afternoon and night; the musical comedy revue, every night. The auto "thrill show" will be held Saturday night.

A midway stretching over a mile will offer more than 100 rides, shows and other attractions for children and grownups.

An industrial exhibition covering more than a quarter acre will be sponsored by 50 York County manufacturers. A sizeable exhibition of agricultural machinery and equipment has also been scheduled.

THE Camera COLUMN

By Dave Garfinkle

"A roll of film, please." Each day thousands of camera fans enter a photo store with this simple request. It's like going into a clothing store and saying, "Wrap me up a shirt, please," without reference to size, color or fit.

There are many types of film on the market, each designed for certain uses. Fitting the film you use to its purpose is the first step in getting good pictures. First, there are orthochromatic films, such as Verichrome and Panachrome. These are general purpose films, not sensitive to red and slow when used under artificial light. A red rose prints jet black on an orthochromatic film, and even rouged cheeks may come out too dark. So a simple rule is: do not use orthochromatic films for close-up pictures of a woman's face or for photographs with red objects. Otherwise, this is a good film for general outdoor photography.

Panchromatic films, represented by Plus X, Super XX, Supreme and Superpan Press, are sensitive to all colors and faster under artificial light. Super XX and Superpan Press are very fast and should be used under poor light conditions. For indoor shots, outdoor pictures in poor light, close-ups of a woman's face, or pictures of red objects, use the fast panchromatic films.

Next time you come in, tell us what you want to photograph. We'll suggest the right film for the job, furnish it for you, and later handle the photo finishing, to your complete satisfaction, at DAVE'S PHOTO SUPPLY, 52 Chambersburg St., Gettysburg, phone 83-W.

Robbery: The house of Mr. Johns, in Hamilton township, near "Virginia Mills" was entered on the night of the 7th instant and robbed of about $40. The old gentleman and lady, both of whom are deaf, with a son confined to bed with the rheumatic disease, all slept in one apartment, in which was stored some $300 in silver. On the night in question, the son was aroused from sleep by the sound of silver falling upon the floor, when the villain decamped through one of the windows, minus the greater portion of his intended plunder. We believe there is nothing to justify any particular suspicion — STAR.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

LONELINESS

Loneliness is largely a state of mind. One can be lonely in a great crowd, in one's home, or in a strange city, while others will be stimulated in any of these places. A writer, who was a great admirer of Thoreau, spoke of him as being a lonely man, but this is what Thoreau had to say in one of his books: "I am no more lonely than a Mill Brook, or a weathercock, or the North Star, or the South Wind, or an April Shower, or a January thaw, or the first spider in a new home."

We create our own loneliness, just the same as we create our own happiness, or our cheerful outlook upon life. The mind and the heart cooperate to sweep out all loneliness. And it is all reflected in the soul.

We are lonely when we are hungry within. To appease this hunger we have to mix within us the ingredients that create forces that drive out all loneliness. It creeps into us all at times, often unawares, but new interests and the joy of well-being pour beauty and zest where only darkness was. One can be lonely on a mountain top, but not if the eye sees and does not merely look.

When we become selfless we become akin to all about us — nature, the blue sky, the movement and song of the wind, and our friends are alive with love. The early dewdrop is not lonely. All about are thousands of brothers and sisters to keep company. A ray of light changes us the moment that it reveals itself to us.

The rare wild flower isn't lonely. Its smile radiates. The white pond lily isn't lonely, though it nests in the mud. It breaks away from all monotony as its whiteness greets the sunlight. You can't get lonely with God in your heart!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Joy of Discovery."

We can't buy patience; we can't buy skill.
For they come only from strength of will.
Courage is something that none can buy.
The richest man must his own supply.

We can't buy friendship as some have learned.
For it isn't like money by shrewdness earned.
It comes from the helping hand you lend
As a gift returned for being a friend.

The stores are stocked with no end of things,
Such as shirts and neckwear and watches and rings
And whatever of raiment you need to wear,
But you won't find character packaged there.

some sensible and pointed remarks about the crowds that nightly congregate at the railroad depot on the arrival of trains, and makes some points that should interest our lady readers.

Moonlight Excursion: A moonlight excursion on the 12th instant was very enjoyable and a complete success in everything save the number of excursionists. Twenty-eight persons left Gettysburg and were joined at Hanover by a number, including the Hanover Silver Cornet Band. At the junction a number from York came aboard, and after a pleasant ride over the Northern Central railroad reached Baltimore at 4 o'clock. They immediately went "aboard" a fine steamboat and proceeded down the bay. The Hanover Band and an orchestra on the boat enlivened the evening with music and all aboard heartily enjoyed the ride.

The Oatis Story Oatis Writes Story Of Red Imprisonment

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis, rested and restored to health after two years in a Communist prison cell in Czechoslovakia, has written the story of his ordeal, as promised when he returned to the United States last May. Here is one of a series of articles in which Oatis relates his experiences.)

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
(Copyright 1953)

(By The Associated Press)
The first sign that I was in trouble came in August of 1950, two months after I went to Prague, Czechoslovakia, as a foreign correspondent.

It happened at the world congress of the International Union of Students, held in a big trade exposition hall on the outskirts of Prague.

The IUS had its secretariat in Prague and included member organizations of college students in 68 countries. The secretariat and most of the member organizations were Communist dominated, but some of the latter, notably in England, Scotland and Denmark, were not.

My newsgathering routine consisted mostly of sitting in the office and writing stories I selected from the official Czechoslovak News Agency and local newspapers and radio, and occasionally going out and getting what I could from diplomats. The student congress gave me a chance to get something first hand — to cover a story with my own eyes and ears.

The convention produced no world-shaking news. But I reported how delegates demonstrated for Soviet Prime Minister Stalin, while some Western delegations sat silent, and how an American speaker proclaimed, "In America, we will shoot. Hands off Korea!"

I later went down on the convention floor to talk to that speaker and some other delegates seated there. The hall was well staffed with ushers, but none stopped me. I was in my office the next morning when a man telephoned asking if I knew where he could find Russell Jones, the United Press chief in Prague. I said I could not, and inquired who he was calling. The man said, "This is Jan."

I had heard about him. Jan Stransky had worked for the UP until shortly before I arrived in Prague. Then he had been picked up and sent to a labor camp on the grounds he had planned to leave the country illegally. A few minutes after he had called, he walked into the office, a slight, boyish fellow with a lively manner, wearing khaki work clothes and brown from the sun. He had a pass to spend Sunday in a town near the camp, and he had taken a chance and come by bus to Prague.

I gathered that he expected to be freed before Christmas and wanted to talk to Jones about getting his job back. Since Jones could not be found, Stransky wrote a note for me to deliver next time I saw him.

Stransky sat down and typed out something on a piece of paper I gave him — a sheet of yellow foolscap. Without reading it, I put it in my pocket.

When I met Jones at the student congress and gave him the note he grimly tore it up and dropped it, piece by piece, on the floor.

Pass Canceled
A little later I showed my pass to get into the convention hall. The usher grabbed it and rushed off. After some delay, a young man in glasses appeared. He was trembling with anger. He waved my pass, torn in two, and said it had been canceled.

"You were not behaving as a journalist only and were working through the conference hall," he said.

I thought at once of how I had gone onto the convention floor and questioned the American that had talked about Korea, and of how unhappy he had seemed to see me.

His speech, reported by the official Czechoslovak News Agency and by at least two American agencies, had caused him some trouble back home. And now, I supposed, the young Communists running the congress were punishing me for sending the story.

The congress ended and I turned to other things. In September, Bedrich Runge, a press officer, called me to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Runge was a tall, gray-haired man with vague blue eyes in a beefy face. On my previous visits, he had received me cordially. This time his manner was stiff and cold, and he was not alone. There was a third party on hand — a mousy little mustached man.

Invited To Leave

Runge failed to offer the usual handshake. Instead, he waved me to a little table. He told me I would not be recredited when my permission to work as a correspondent expired Sept. 30.

"This is not a measure directed against The Associated Press," he said. "It is a measure directed against you personally."

"You cannot work in this country unless you respect our laws," I asked him to be specific.

"You know very well the reason," he said, and I answered, "But I don't know the reason."

I wrote a letter to Runge, requesting permission to stay till a replacement could get in. Finally it was decided I would not be recredited but that I could stay and work temporarily as a "private person."

I still did not know why my re-creditation was being refused, but I had a hunch this had to do with the young Communists that had banished me from the student congress, and with the story about the American who spoke on Korea.

About that time, I had a talk with Vaclav Korinek, general manager of the Czechoslovak News Agency, and asked him if he could tell me what was behind my trouble. And he spoke of the same story.

Maybe that story did have something to do with it — the whole thing is not clear yet. But the story was not the only thing involved. There was something else. And the people who told me about that were the secret police.

U. S. IS URGED TO LEAD WAY FOR "FREER TRADE"

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. government appeared to be under strong pressure Saturday from other countries fiscal representatives to lead the way to convertible currencies and freer trade.

The 55-nation World Bank and Monetary Fund came to the end of an annual meeting, but Reginald Maundling, United Kingdom representative, is staying here until Wednesday. Officials would not comment on Maundling's extended stay, but it aroused speculation that he hoped to learn in private talks with U.S. Treasury officials what help Britain can count on from the United States if she drops restrictions on free exchange of the pound sterling.

Turk Governor Remains
Another bank-fund governor remaining after the close of the meeting was Hassen Polatkan, Turkish minister of finance. Polatkan's aims also were undisclosed, but were thought to center about his country's new program to attract private investment, particularly dollar investment.

The governors of the World Bank gathered for a closed meeting at which they were to consider a recommendation from the bank's committee on finance and organization for the possible suspension of Czechoslovakia, only Soviet bloc member of the bank and fund. The committee recommended that the governors vote to suspend Czechoslovakia unless by Dec. 31 she has paid the remaining $625,000 of her capital subscription to the bank.

The governors of the bank and fund—for the most part the same men—were also scheduled to vote

New American Can Co. Plant Complete

The new American Can Co. plant at Lemoyne will be open for inspection Friday evening from 7 to 9:30 p.m., officials of the company announced today.

Company spokesmen said the company constructed the plant at Lemoyne to make cans "in an area where a large amount of farm products is processed in cans." Within a 100 mile area of Lemoyne, they said, Pennsylvania farmers last year harvested 198,000 tons of vegetables for which they received $8,140,000.

American Can officials said that last year 32,938,000 pounds of snap beans, lima beans, sweet corn, green peas and tomatoes grown in Adams County went to the market in containers. Canners and freezers paid the Adams County farmers $745,000 for the five vegetables.

FAMILY OF FOUR, TWO BROTHERS KILLED IN CRASH

By The Associated Press

A terrific auto-train wreck killed a family of four and two brothers out for a Sunday drive in Clearfield County. Other weekend Pennsylvania traffic mishaps pushed the death toll to 13.

Killed as a freight train plowed into their car were Calvin Small, 28, of Mahaffey; his wife, Betty, 28; their two children, Minnie Regina, 6, and John, 1½; and two brothers of Mrs. Small, Philip Stump, 19, and Lynn Stump, 15, both of Westover in Clearfield County.

The tragedy occurred on a Pennsylvania Railroad grade crossing on the edge of Little Mahaffey, 25 miles southwest of Clearfield.

All Killed Instantly
All the victims were killed instantly. The train hit the auto broadside and dragged it about 350 yards. Impact of the collision wrapped the car around the front of the diesel locomotive like an accordion.

W. G. Bannon of Cresson, in Cambria County, a fireman on the train, said he saw the auto coming on to the crossing and added: "I knew they weren't going to make it. I hollered to the engineer to put on his brakes. But it was too late."

Other Fatalities
The train—made up of the locomotive, a caboose and six cars—was en route from Punxsutawney to Cresson. Bannon told state police the train was going about 30 miles an hour.

The Smalls lived on a small farm just beyond the crash scene. Mrs. Stella Peace, a sister of Small who lives near the fatal crossing, said the six stopped at her home earlier and apparently were on the way to visit Mrs. Minnie Stump, mother of Mrs. Small, who resides on the outskirts of Mahaffey.

In other fatal accidents:
A dump truck crushed to death 8-year-old Robert Daniels who darted into the street near his Erie home while trying to catch a stray dog.

An auto careened out of control and turned over in a ditch on Route 819 a mile north of Scottsdale in Westmoreland County, killing Vale Faust, 24, of Mount Pleasant.

Clyde Dyer, 27, of Washington, Ind., burned to death in the cab of his furniture truck which burst into flames after overturning on Route 19 near Washington.

In Philadelphia, 84-year-old John Campagna was killed by an auto while crossing the street.

Injuries suffered in a three-car collision near Reading proved fatal to Joseph Sandman, 68, of Fleetwood R. 3.

A pickup truck, failing to negotiate a curve on Route 53 near Philipsburg, rolled over and killed Seth

Yanks Can Clinch Pennant Today; Pinch Homer By Mize Defeats Indians; Chisox Out

By JOE REICHER
AP Sports Writer

Today is V-Day for Manager Casey Stengel and his New York Yankees.

V stands for five, the record number of consecutive pennants Stengel and his Yankees are certain of winning, a feat never accomplished before by club or manager.

The world champions reduced their "magic number" to two by defeating the Cleveland Indians, 6-3 on amazing Johnny Mize's pinch hit home run with two mates aboard in the eighth inning. The triumph boosted the Yank lead over the Tribe to 12 games.

White Sox Are Out

Two is the combination number of Yankee victories and-or Indian defeats needed to gain New York's fifth straight pennant. As the Yankees and Indians were to clash again this afternoon, a New York victory would eliminate the Tribe from any mathematical possibility of overtaking the Yankees.

The Chicago White Sox officially faded out of the pennant race yesterday losing 7-6 to the Red Sox in Boston. In other American League games, Detroit solidified its hold on sixth place, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from Washington 10-4 and 6-4 while St. Louis and Philadelphia divided their doubleheader. The Browns spoiled rookie right hander Bob Trice's major league debut, defeating the Philadelphia Negro 5-2 in the opener. The A's won the second 2-0 as Harry Byrd ended a personal nine-game losing streak.

Cubs Beat Champs

In the National League Chicago's seventh place Cubs extended their winning streak to nine straight defeating the champion Brooklyn Dodgers 3-2 in 10 innings. The St. Louis Cardinals rolled up 19 hits crushing the Philadelphia Phillies 17-3 for Harvey Haddix' 18th triumph. Warren Spahn won his 20th as Milwaukee split a doubleheader with the New York Giants. Joe Adcock's 18th homer with a man on base enabled Spahn to win a 2-1 hurling duel from Larry Jansen in the opener. Five unearned runs in the fourth inning gave Marv Grissom and the Giants a 7-4 victory.

After Pittsburgh's Paul Lappalme pitched a seven-hit 5-4 triumph in the opener, Cincinnati won the second game 8-6. Rookie Jim Green-grass hit his 19th homer for the Redjigs. Frank Thomas hit his 23rd four-bagger for Pittsburgh and teammate Preston Ward hammered two in the nightcap.

John Mize was the Yankee hero yesterday. The 40-year-old pinch hitter de luxe strode out of the dugout with runners on first and second, one out in the eighth, the score tied at 3-3 and whacked Mike Garcia's first pitch into the right field stands for a three-run homer. It was his third pinch hit homer of the season, his fifth as a Yankee and the sixth of his long career.

BLAME UMPIRE IN PRISON RIOT

HAGERSTOWN, MD. (AP)—It wasn't poor food or rough treatment by guards that sent more than 100 inmates on a riotous binge of destruction last night and today at the Maryland State Reformatory for Males.

"It was an umpire's decision in a ball game," said the flabbergasted Supt. Henry R. Raymond. Sixty-three young prisoners, still seething over an official's call in an afternoon reformatory league baseball game, erupted into violence at bedtime.

Before being subdued by tear gas, fire hoses and Raymond's stern words, they wrecked furniture, shattered windows and smashed lighting fixtures in two recreation rooms of the western Maryland institution.

Early today a second flareup occurred when a group of 40 prisoners in a basement dormitory tried to barricade doors and started breaking lights.

BULLETS, RAMS HOLD WORKOUT HERE SATURDAY

The Gettysburg and West Chester College football squads tangled here Saturday afternoon in a five-period scrimmage session with the visiting Rams holding a slight edge in the "scoring."

Kickoffs and tries for extra points were eliminated but for the most part the practice session was held under game conditions with three visiting officials taking charge. Coaches of both squads halted play time and again to correct mistakes made by their charges.

Both squads turned in impressive line play exhibitions but both showed they will stress better pass defense in future workouts. Aerials played important roles in all of the touchdowns "scored."

Gettysburg held a 17-7 edge in "first downs." The Bullets connected on nine of 17 passes with West Chester making good on eight of 16. The Bullets are scheduled to go to Shippensburg Wednesday to hold a workout with Shippensburg State Teachers College and on Saturday will meet Johns Hopkins University in another practice session here.

EMMITSBURG 9 DOWNS BRS IN PLAYOFF GAME

Emmitsburg hopped off to a good start in the Shaughnessy playoffs of the Pen-Mar Baseball League by defeating Blue Ridge Summit 8-2 Sunday afternoon at Emmitsburg in the lone game played.

Rain Saturday prevented the double-header listed at Emmitsburg to decide positions for the playoffs and drawings were held in which Emmitsburg drew second place, New Oxford third place and Blue Ridge Summit fourth place. Union Bridge finished unbeaten in the regular season.

New Oxford and Union Bridge were unable to stage their game at Union Bridge due to wet grounds, the result of a heavy storm Saturday evening.

Next Sunday Emmitsburg will play at Blue Ridge Summit while New Oxford and Union Bridge will open their series at Union Bridge.

Paul Clarke, first baseman, sparked Emmitsburg to its triumph Saturday, collecting two singles, a double and a triple in four times at bat.

Sonny Weikert, Emmitsburg hurler, allowed but three hits, including a single and triple by Poole.

GREENMOUNT IS 2-0 VICTIM OF TANEYTOWN 9

Taneytown took the opening game of the best-of-three series for the playoff title of the South Penn Baseball League by blanking Greenmount 2-0 Sunday afternoon on the Taneytown diamond.

The game resolved itself into a fine pitchers' duel between Decker of Greenmount and Unger of Taneytown.

Decker gave up but five hits, whiffed seven and walked one. Unger was even tighter with his hits, allowing but three singles, fanning four and yielding three walks.

Taneytown tabbed a run in the last of the second and added another tally in the seventh.

Brennan secured two of Greenmount's hits. Unger also poled a pair for Taneytown.

Approximately 1,000 persons attended the game.

The second game of the series will be played next Sunday afternoon at Greenmount.

DOGS by Tom Farley

CHILDREN AND DOGS

What makes the cutest picture? The most attention-arresting advertisement? The most interesting parade?

Well, experts in the fields of photography, publishing and advertising tell us that there is nothing that rates as high as a child and a dog. And outdoor display people say that a youngster and his pet on a billboard will attract more attention than even the most scantily clad bathing beauty.

Child stars and dog stars are great drawing cards in the movies in spite of the limitations they place on the scripts. And who is there that doesn't know the famous "Butch" covers by Albert Staehle that used to appear on the Saturday Evening Post covers and now reach an even greater number of people on the American Weekly?

Little Orphan Annie rose to fame with her dog, and every gallery has its quota of child and dog works of art.

For 20 years tremendous crowds have gathered for the pet parades put on in all parts of the country under the joint sponsorship of the producers of Pard dog food and local stores. Neighborhood youngsters spruce up their pets and come in droves to join the parade and compete for prizes which are given for such accomplishments as being the smallest pet, the cutest pet, the most unusual pet, or the most comically dressed pet. And adults come in droves to watch. When the fabulous "Webb City"—the St. Petersburg, Fla., drug store that sells everything from jewelry to real estate—put on a pet parade, there were 1,500 entries and thousands of spectators lined the streets.

Why? Because children and dogs are an irresistible combination.

NOTRE DAME TO RETURN TO TOP, POLL PREDICTS

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame will complete its climb back to the top of the national collegiate football rankings this year in the opinion of the 171 sportswriters and broadcasters participating in the Associated Press' annual pre-season poll.

The Irish, who reached the third rung of the standings in the final poll of 1952 after being shut out the two previous seasons, were voted by a wide margin as the team most likely to succeed. They received 84 first place votes and a total of 1,668 on the basis of 10 for first, nine for second and etc.

Michigan State, 1952 champion, dropped back to second with 24 first place votes and a total of 1,305. Georgia Tech, runner-up to the Spartans last year, was placed at the top by the same number of voters and finished a close third with 1,128.

UCLA followed with 12 first and a total of 1,065 for a position two places higher than in the 1952 final poll. Alabama rose from ninth to fifth with 966 points. Then came Oklahoma, fourth last year, with 672; Ohio State with 666; Southern California with 163; Maryland 143 and Duke with 86. Alabama received 18 first place votes, Oklahoma and Ohio State 3 each, Maryland 1 and Duke 2.

Scholastic Grid Winners Of 1952 Fail To Survive First Football Tilt Of '53 Season

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two all-winning records compiled last season failed to survive the first test of Pennsylvania's 1953 scholastic grid campaign.

Both Alliquippa, the WPIAL Class AA champion, and Johnsonburg failed to win their first game of the year over the weekend. One of the busiest opening slates in a decade saw DuBois and Washington add another victim to unbeaten-untied regular season strings built in 1952.

Upper Darby, only other major school to go through last season without a defeat or tie was not scheduled.

A powerful Erie Cathedral Prep squad, Erie champion four years in a row, humbled Alliquippa, 23-12, and ended 11 consecutive triumphs. Phillipsburg held Johnsonburg to a 0-0 deadlock after the Ramblers won nine in a row last year.

Altoona Bows 33-0
DuBois made everything look easy in surprising usually-strong Altoona, 33-0, for victory No. 10 over two years. And Washington, another WPIAL contender, slipped past Canonsburg, 6-0, in a non league tilt for a ninth consecutive regular season victory.

Old Forge ran up a 20-0 count over Archbald for a successful start toward holding the top prize of the 51-member East Penn Conference. Coal Twp. triumphed over Mount Carmel by the same score to put in an early bid for recognition.

Other East Penn contests found Hazleton, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Shenandoah and Coaldale registering impressive decisions over MoAdoo, Frackville, Summit Hill, West Mahanoy Twp., and Blythe Twp.

Sunburg Squeezes Win
Sunbury, the league's southern division champ, came out with a slim 6-2 win over a traditional rival, Northumberland, of the Susquehanna Conference.

There were no league games in central Pennsylvania where conference competition is usually delayed a week or two. Harrisburg William Penn, Chambersburg, Lebanon, Gettysburg and Hershey all scored non conference warmup wins.

Two Western Conference results produced a pair of early contenders for the Class A crown won last year by Ebensburg. Conemaugh Borough, coming back from a disastrous 1952 season, upset Ebensburg, 20-14. And in the game that was expected to produce a leading candidate for 1953 honors, Conemaugh Twp. took the measure of Lewistown, 20-14.

TRIPLETS WIN IN SEMI-FINALS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Binghamton Triplets relaxed today to watch the fun—with their place in the Eastern League's final playoff secure.

The Triplets completed their conquest of the Albany Senators yesterday, winning 6-3 behind the pitching of Wally Burnette. The victory at Albany gave the Triplets the semi-final series, four games to one.

But the real fireworks were at Schenectady, where the Blue Jays kept their post-season hopes alive with a 19-8 drubbing of the Reading Indians.

Reaging holds a 3-2 edge in games in the best-of-seven series. It moves to the Indians' park tonight. Binghamton will meet the winner in a similar series for the 1953 Governors' Cup.

The Triplets jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first inning and from then on the story was Burnette's steady pitching.

Reading grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first inning, but Schenectady poured nine runs across in its half. Tom Casagrande, who struck out 11, was the winner over "Murphy" Murszewski, first of five Reading moundsmen.

On The House

Teen-agers are now doing things to architecture and our houses. To believe this (except for wear and tear) may be difficult for some of the youngsters' critics. But there is plenty of evidence. And this evidence may be of value to you if you are planning a new house or a remodeling job.

Consider the number of house plans you see nowadays with so-called multi-purpose rooms. These rooms are virtually second living rooms. Often they include a fireplace. Frequently they are paved with asphalt tile for heavy usage. Informality is their keynote—something like the rumpus room of prohibition days.

Well, authorities blame—or credit—the rambunctious teen-agers for bringing about the multi-purpose room, for spurring the demand for finished basements and finished attics, for indirectly selling a lot of tough-wearing floor coverings and acoustical ceiling materials.

For instance, W. Wadsworth Wood of Chicago, who knows a lot about trends in houses and ways of living, contends that teen-agers "will gather wherever they're made welcome—to sing, dance, hear music, talk and generally express their health and high spirits—whether it's a roadhouse or your own home."

As publisher of Small Homes Guide and the new magazine, Home Modernizing, Wood has some very definite opinions on the influence the adolescent is exerting over architects. He thinks the typical youngster has a "recognized right to stomp and holler and let off steam."

"For many homeowners," he says, "the problem is not 'Should we fix up a teen-age room?' but rather

"Where? And how?"

Everybody doesn't have a basement, especially among the newer houses, and everybody doesn't have an attic, or a barn or garage to convert into a recreation hall, but Wood is convinced that some livable arrangements can be made. This can be a problem for the family handyman to solve.

In the current issue of Home Modernizing, published for National Home Week, Wood sets forth this view:

"You can turn over the kitchen and living room to the thundering herd while you and your wife go to the movies; or you can fix up a separate room that won't suffer from high-spirited activities, leaving your good furniture undisturbed, and leaving you and your wife as a controlling influence in the background."

An interesting solution to the problem of space, where no basement is available, is offered by Robert N. Marling of Madison, Wis. The Marlings built a "Happy Hut" in their back yard. Measuring 26 by 23 feet, it comprises on big room with a fireplace, complete kitchen, television, coat closet and lavatory.

"When it outwards its usefulness as a playhouse," says Marling, "it can be converted into a guest room or two-car garage—when the kids are grown up and gone."

Aids Re-sale Value
There's an eye to resale value for you, too. But in the meantime the Marlings seem to be getting their money's worth out of their Happy Hut.

"We celebrated its completion with a 16th birthday party," Mr. Marling says. "Since that time we have had many kid parties (and a few adult parties) climaxed by a crowd of over 150 teen-agers, cast and stage hands, after the high school play."

"The beauty of it is that we still have the privacy of our home and can clean up the playhouse the next day, or when we can find the time, and there is no damage to treasured possessions."

Now you can get out your hammer and nails and bless those teen-agers' hearts.

Hot-rodgers Crash Parking Lot Cars

SOMERVILLE, Mass. (AP)—Teen-age hot-rodgers had a wild time yesterday crashing cars head-on into each other behind the Somerville Buick Co.

Company officials counted 44 cars smashed and estimated damage—ripped off fenders, shattered headlights and twisted bumpers—would total "at least $5,000."

They said the boys took advantage of the fact that mechanics had left keys in the ignition locks.

Lovely Biennial Flowers Easy To Grow From Seed

A group of flowers which can be sown in early summer and without ever being under shelter from the weather will produce flowers for next spring and early summer are the biennials, which take two years to bloom.

These are seldom grown for sale, because they give only one season of flowers, and perennials, which last for years, may seem to be a better buy. But in the perennial borders which were the show plantings of private estate gardens, the biennials were star performers, and they will attract much admiration in early summer in any garden.

Foxgloves, sweet William and Canterbury bells are the showiest biennials. Pansies and violas, which seldom thrive for more than one blooming season, may be grown by the same methods. The easiest way for an amateur to grow them all is in flats, the shallow wooden boxes used to start seeds under shelter in the early spring.

A packet of seed of any of these subjects will sow a flat, which should be filled with the same sort of soil that is used to start seeds in the spring. One-third peat, one-third sharp sand and the rest sifted top-soil will be adequate.

Place the box in a lightly shaded place and keep the soil moist until the seeds sprout. This will take 10-15 days for foxglove; 8 days for sweet William; 8-10 days for Canterbury bells, 10 days for pansies and violas. The flats can be placed in a convenient location for quick attention and should be sprinkled daily until the seedlings have made their second pair of leaves.

Give them the full sun then, for at least six hours a day, and water often enough to prevent the soil from drying out. They will grow slowly until fall with small attention from you. They will need some protection in winter, a cold frame if available, but a sheltered spot near the foundation wall, where you can cover them with leaves when freezing weather sets in, will do almost as well.

An occasional inspection, watering when the soil seems too dry, is all the care they need over winter. They need good drainage and protection from thaws, which they will find in a flat covered with leaves. In the spring they will start growing again long before the weather is warm, and freezing will not hurt them. They should be moved to the garden as soon as the soil can be prepared and will bloom before any annual flowers, even those started under protection.

Many hardy perennials can be grown by these same methods, especially delphinium, for which fresh seeds can be obtained about August 1. Fresh seed germinates better than old seed, in summer, though good results can be obtained with the latter when sown in cold soil.

There is no way in which an amateur can save faster than by growing his own plants from seed. He has the advantage of unlimited choice of varieties to grow, and with a minimum of work can produce a hundred plants for the cost of a dozen mature ones.

U. N. TENSION IS MOUNTING OVER CHINA DEBATE

By A. I. GOLDBERG
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Tension built up again in the United Nations today as explosive new debate became a certainty in the wake of Communist China's demands for a "round-table" Korean peace conference.

A spokesman for the United States at once emphatically rejected the Peking proposals, made in a long telegram yesterday from Chinese Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai to U.N. Secretary Gen. Dag Hammarskjöld.

With the U.N. General Assembly opening tomorrow, delegates prepared for another oratorical battle over Chou's demands that Russia, India, Burma, Pakistan and Indonesia be invited to the peace conference as "neutrals," and that Red China and North Korea be invited to send representatives to the U.N. Assembly "to discuss" the question of enlarging the membership of the political conference.

Murphy Explains
U. S. Asst. Secretary of State Robert Murphy voiced the American rejection, telling the American Association for the United Nations in a speech in New York that the American plan for a two-sided conference must be carried out. The Assembly approved this plan 43-5 last month.

Murphy said the U. S. government "sees no reason whatever" for new Assembly debate on the conference makeup, or for inviting the Red Chinese to the Assembly. But delegates generally felt the question would break into the open soon after the body elects its officers and organizes for what is supposed to be a "three-month session."

Qualified quarters said the United States, rather than risk having no peace conference at all, would withdraw its opposition to renewed debate.

U. S. delegates gathered in New York for their first briefing on the new developments and, on other U. S. policies for the coming session.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived last night to attend the Assembly opening.

This morning's session, of the delegation at the U. S. mission headquarters on Park Ave. was the first time the new delegates—Gov. James F. Byrnes, Henry Ford II, Reps. Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio) and James P. Richards (D-Sci)—had a chance to sit down at their own round table and determine their tasks in the Assembly and its seven committees.

Giant Helicopter Can Carry 40 Soldiers

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Plasecki Helicopter Corp. has held its first public demonstration of a transport helicopter which it says can carry 40 fully armed soldiers. The giant aircraft, described by the company as the largest in the world, has a 78-foot fuselage—about the same size as the 40-passenger Convair commercial airliners.

LEWIS STONE OF FILMS MOURNED

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Friends and fans today mourned the tragic passing of Lewis Stone, 73, the dignified veteran of stage and screen who collapsed and died Saturday night while chasing three teen-age prowlers outside his Hollywood home.

Private funeral services will be conducted at the actor's home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Hazel Stone, widow of the white-haired actor who portrayed "Judge Hardy" in the movies, said her husband was watching television when he heard prowlers outside. He collapsed on a sidewalk while chasing the boys and died of a heart attack without regaining consciousness.

Showman 50 Years
Mrs. Stone said lawn furniture had been thrown into their swimming pool and that there had been trouble of this kind before. Police took three boys, one 13 and the others 15, into custody and booked them on suspicion of malicious mischief. Later they were released to custody of their parents pending possible juvenile court action.

Stone had been in show business more than 50 years. He was born in Worcester, Mass. He served in the Spanish-American War and was a cavalry major and instructor in World War I. His appearance in the Broadway stage play "Sidetracked" led to stardom and other hits in which he appeared included "The Girl of the Golden West" and "The Bird of Paradise."

In recent years Stone had curtailed his acting work but just a few weeks ago he completed a picture, "All the Brothers Were Valiant." His first picture, "Honor's Altar," was in 1915. Other early films included "Scaramouche," "Grand Hotel" and "Prisoner of Zenda."

In addition to his widow Stone is survived by two daughters, Barbara and Virginia. He had been married twice before. His first wife was the late Margaret Langham. He and his second wife, Florence Pryor, known as Florence Oakley on the stage, were divorced in 1939.

RED POLE SAYS ESCAPED POLE WAS KIDNAPED

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Polish member of a four-nation commission policing the Korean truce charged Saturday that a Polish interpreter who fled to freedom was kidnapped by American Army officers and demanded his immediate return.

Jan Hajdukiewicz, a 28-year-old civilian interpreter, broke from a truce inspection team at a South Korean air base Wednesday and was given political asylum by U.S. officers.

The Army won't say where Hajdukiewicz is now. There has been speculation that he was flown either to Tokyo or Okinawa.

Letter Of Protest
Maj. Gen. M. Wagnowski, senior Polish officer in Korea, Saturday read a letter of protest at a meeting of the armistice supervisory commission.

The letter charged that Hajdukiewicz was kidnapped by American officers and demanded his immediate return.

The letter was addressed to Gen. Mark W. Clark, U.N. commander, and was not submitted to the commission.

The commission took no action on the letter, said Maj. Gen. Sven Grafstrom, Swedish delegate and commission chairman. Grafstrom said the commission would not intervene. He said the incident was a matter between the Polish delegation and the U. N. Command.

Contents Not Divulged
The Red Peiping radio said a written copy of the letter was given to an Allied liaison officer at Panmunjom Friday for delivery to Clark. The U. N. Command confirmed a letter had been received, but would not immediately divulge its contents.

Peiping said Wagnowski "protested against this violation of the rights guaranteed to the neutral nations inspection teams by the armistice agreement and demand-

Former Catawba Dean Dies At 84

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Allen K. Faust, former professor and dean of men at Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., died last night at the Phoebe Deaconess Home here. He was 84.

A graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., Dr. Faust spent 30 years in Japan as a missionary for the Evangelical and Reformed Church. He was on the faculty of the Southern college from 1930 to 1944.

He is survived by two sons, four grandchildren, and a brother.

U. S. SHARE OF U. N. COSTS CUT

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Committee on Contributions has approved a long-standing U.S. request that the American share of United Nations costs be cut from 35.12 per cent to 33.13 per cent.

Only two Iron Curtain members of the 10-nation committee dissented from Friday's majority ruling favoring the reduction in the American share of the annual budget. They were the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia.

The cut would be effective for the 1954 fiscal year. The annual cost of the international organization has been running between 47 and 50 million dollars.

The committee also recommended Russia's share be hiked from 12.28 per cent of the budget to 14.15 per cent. Britain's share would be reduced from 10.3 per cent to 9.8 per cent.

ed that Jan Hajdukiewicz be returned to the inspection team." The commission met for two hours and 35 minutes, took up only routine matters after the protest, then scheduled another session for Monday.

In Washington, the Pentagon released more names of 944 American military personnel believed to have been captured in Korea but still unaccounted for.

RITA REFUSES $1 MILLION FOR YASMIN'S FAITH

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Rita Hayworth Friday night turned down a million-dollar divorce settlement from Aly Khan for support of their 3½-year-old daughter Yasmin.

"Nothing will make me give up Yasmin's chance to live here in America among our precious freedoms and habits," the film star told the Associated Press.

Her attorney said Prince Aly had attached two conditions to the million-dollar offer: (A) Yasmin was to be exposed to Moslem teachings when she is seven and (B) the child was to be brought to Europe two or three months each year.

Prefers Christian Faith
Rita said:

"While I respect the Moslem faith and all other faiths, it is my earnest wish that my daughter be raised as a normal, healthy American girl in the Christian faith."

"There isn't any amount of money in the entire world that is worth sacrificing this child's privilege of living as a normal Christian girl here in the United States."

"There just isn't anything else in the world that can compare with her sacred chance for that. And I'm going to give it to Yasmin regardless of what it costs."

The glamorous redhead, wearing a simple black dress, made the announcement on the veranda of her second-floor hotel suite.

Visiting Dick Haymes
She is in Las Vegas visiting her intended next husband, crooner Dick Haymes, who is establishing Nevada residence before suing for divorce from Nora Eddington Flynn Haymes.

With Rita was her attorney, Bartley Crum, who had flown from a Paris conference with Aly's attorney.

Miss Hayworth instructed Crum to cable her refusal Sunday to Aly's attorney, Charles Torem, in Paris.

WHY just look and sigh—and pass up so much real automobile?

Why—when this big and beautiful new Buick SPECIAL delivers for the surprisingly low price shown here?

Could be you're one of those folks who still don't believe that the price of a Buick really is just a few dollars more than that of the so-called "low-priced" cars.

So here we show our car and price to prove it.

But beyond that—what you get in this great Buick, for so small a step-up in what you pay, is plenty.

More power. Fireball 8 power. The highest horsepower and compression ratio ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL.

More room. Real six-passenger room—even by man-size measurement.

More comfort. The solid comfort of Buick's Million Dollar Ride—with coil-spring cushioning on all four wheels, wide-tread stability, torque-tube steadiness.

More pleasure. The pleasure of high visibility, of luxurious fabrics and fittings, of superbly easy handling—and the deep satisfaction of bossing a big and able and stunningly styled automobile that does you proud wherever you go.

Why not drop in on us and see things for yourself?

That way you'll also learn about the long list of "extras" you get at no extra cost in this spirited new 1953 Buick SPECIAL—things that most other cars of similar price charge for as extras. Can you make it this week?

SIGHTS COUSIN AFTER 20 YEARS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A distinctive family facial feature enabled Mrs. Vera Hedding Eschenbach to spot her cousin, Cpl. Charles Hedding, Apollo, Pa., in a crowd of hundreds of servicemen. She hadn't seen him in 20 years.
 Hedding, a Red prisoner for 37 months, arrived yesterday aboard the Marine Phoenix.
 "I couldn't miss that Hedding chin in any crowd," Mrs. Eschenbach said, after their reunion. She now lives in Petaluma, Calif.
 The Pennsylvania soldier received a second surprise as he stood talking with Mrs. Eschenbach, her husband, and two children. A medical captain tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Hedding, how are you?"
 "My God, I thought you were dead," Hedding replied.
 The officer was Capt. Herbert Henrichs of Britt, Iowa. Hedding served under him in Japan and Korea, as a medic with the 24th Division.
 Hedding was taken to Letter-

Pennsylvanians Win Both Beauty Pageants; Will Begin Whirlwind Victory Tours Today

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)— Pennsylvania had a corner on the beauty market today, with lovelies from that state the winners of the 1954 Miss and Mrs. America crowns.
 As Evelyn Margaret Ay launched a whirlwind tour today, her victory Saturday night over 51 other beauties in the Miss America pageant seemed like a dream.
 It was the same for Mrs. Erna Snyder, chosen from among 32 other wedded beauties to wear the

Mrs. America crown at Asbury Park last night.

Miss Ay, who prefers to be called "Evvy," has a week of television appearances and wardrobe fitting in New York to go through before taking to the road.

She Was Surprised
 Her heart belongs to a naval officer trainee, and she sported a diamond engagement ring on the third finger of her left hand at her first press conference yesterday.

The 20-year-old pageant winner, who hails from the small town of Ephrata, Pa., is a University of Pennsylvania coed. She got the ring a week ago from Carl Sempler of Verona, N. J., 22, an ex-football player now in a navy officer training school at Newport, R. I.

Evvy's surprised she was the victor, because she thinks she's too fat in places. She weighs 132 and stands 5 feet 8 inches high, her bust-waist-hips measurements are 37, 24, and 36 inches.

Ironie Touch
 Besides $40,000 in personal appearance fees, Miss America gets a $5,000 scholarship and other awards worth another $5,000.

Evvy had won a swim suit preliminary and also piled up enough points in talent, evening gown and personality competition to make the finals.

There'll be an ironic touch to Mrs. America's appearance today at a fair in Reading in her home state of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Snyder had entered two beauty contests there in the past, but the best she did was to finish as a runner-up.

"I didn't expect to win," she said after being given the crown last night. "I still can't believe it."

More Than Beauty
 The 115-pound, 5 feet 4 1/2 inches-tall mother of two boys also has a year of personal appearances ahead of her as the Queen of married lovelies.

Mrs. Snyder, 24, has a 34-inch bust, 23-inch waist and 34-inch hips. Beauty alone isn't enough in determining a winner in the Mrs. America contest. Homemaking ability was equally important.

ple-to-make vacation favorites. Scores of smart original designs for all occasions, all ages, all sizes and all members of the family. In COLOR. Price just 30 cents.

ing ladies' auxiliary was won by the ladies of the Good Will Company of West Fairview. The $25 second prize went to the auxiliary of the Mount Holly Springs Citizen's Company.

40 Units In Parade

A $25 award for the best appearing fire apparatus went to Newport. The $15 second prize was awarded to the Cumberland Bureau of Fire pumper and ladder truck of Carlisle.

Nearly $600 in prize money was posted by the host company. More than 40 units and pieces of fire fighting equipment from 22 fire companies from Cumberland, York, Adams, Perry, Juniata, Franklin and Cumberland Counties were in the line of march.

The parade climaxed the three-day convention. A drenching rain fell on the Dillsburg area all morning. However, by mid-afternoon the sun appeared, and no further rain marred the holiday atmosphere for the thousands of spectators.
